

email PunTasy - Volume I

"These just crack me up every time !!!!"

Barney Hegarty

Welcome

Email Puntasy Volume I is the first of a series containing emails that have been sent directly to me and have caused me to laugh out loud.

Having bought this book, you are free to copy any of the contents and email them on to family and friends to provide them with a regular laugh. Your purchase will have included the address of a page within www.BHReviews.com that contains text files of the book, enabling you to cut and paste them to suit your audience. Please remember to mention www.BHReviews.com whenever you send them out.

Have a look at www.BHReviews.com, a growing site selling e-books compiled from a wide range of sources with the goal of saving people time. The Email Series are about not only immediate amusement, but also a source for you to dip into and send out to family, friends and colleagues – potentially even sales prospects – as a starting point for conversation or contact or just for a bit of fun. There are a number of further series, including The Battle of the Sexes Series, the Family Friendly Series, the Rude but Funny Series, the Corporate Series and the oddly popular Non-PC Series.

Enjoy

Barney

The Pet store

Two Irishmen walk into a pet shop. Right away they go over to the Bird section.

Gerry says to Paddy, "Dat's dem."

The clerk comes over and asks if he can help them.

Yeah, we'll take four of dem dere birds in dat cage op dere" says Gerry
"No need to wrap dem jus put dem in a peeper bag."

The clerk does and the two guys pay for the birds and leave the shop. They get into Gerry's van and drive until they are high up in the hills and stop at the top of a cliff with a 500 foot drop.

"Dis looks loike a grand place, eh?" says Gerry.

He then takes two birds out of the bag, places them on his shoulders and jumps off the cliff. Paddy watches as his mate drops off the edge and plummets straight down for a few seconds followed by 'SPLAT'.

As Paddy looks over the edge of the cliff he shakes his head and says,

"Fock dat, dis budgie jumpin' is too fockin' dangerous for me."

===== PART TWO =====

A minute later, Seamus arrives. He too has been to the pet shop and he walks carrying the familiar 'peeper bag'.

He pulls a parrot out of the bag, and then Paddy notices that, in his other hand, Seamus is carrying a gun.

"Hi, Paddy. Watch dis," Seamus says and launches himself over the edge of the cliff.

Paddy watches as half way down, Seamus takes out the gun and blows the parrot's head off. Seamus continues to plummet until again there is a 'SPLAT'!, as he joins Gerry's remains at the bottom.

Paddy shakes his head and says, "An' oim never troyin' dat parrotshooting nider."

===== PART THREE =====

A few minutes after Seamus splats himself Sean strolls up. He too has been to the pet shop and he walks up carrying the familiar 'peeper bag'.

Instead of a parrot he pulls a chicken out of the bag, and, with arms held extended launches himself off the cliff.

Initially Sean seems to fly but this illusion is rather quickly replaced by a period of plummeting followed by the obligatory splat.

Once more Paddy shakes his head - 'Fock me Sean, first der was Gerry wit his budgie jumping,den Seamus parrotshooting and now you fockin "hengliding."

Chicken Surprise!!

A couple go for a meal at a Chinese restaurant and order the "Chicken Surprise".

The waiter brings the meal, served in a lidded cast iron pot.

Just as the wife is about to serve herself, the lid of the pot rises slightly with two beady little eyes looking around before the lid slams back down.

"Good grief, did you see that?" she asks her husband.

He has not, so she asks him to look in the pot. He reaches for it and again the lid rises, and he sees two little eyes looking around before it slams down.

Rather perturbed, he calls the waiter over, explains what is happening and demands an explanation.

"Please sir," says the waiter, "what you order?"

The husband replies, "Chicken Surprise."

(You are going to love this)

" Ah... So sorry," says the waiter, "I bring you Peeking Duck".

"Because", he said, "I can't stand chess-nuts boasting in an open foyer."

A woman has twins and gives them up for adoption.

One of them goes to a family in Egypt and is named "Ahmal." The other goes to a family in Spain; they name him "Juan"

Years later, Juan sends a picture of himself to his birth mother. Upon receiving the picture, she tells her husband that she wishes she also had a picture of Ahmal. Her husband responds, "They're twins! If you've seen Juan, you've seen Ahmal."

Three friars were behind on their belfry payments, so they opened up a small florist shop to raise funds.

Since everyone liked to buy flowers from the men of God, a rival florist across town thought the competition was unfair. He asked the good fathers to close down, but they would not.

He went back and begged the friars to close. They ignored him. So, the rival florist hired Hugh MacTaggart, the roughest and most vicious thug in town to "persuade" them to close. Hugh beat up the friars and trashed their store, saying he'd be back if they didn't close up shop.

Terrified, they did so, thereby proving that only Hugh can prevent florist friars.

Mahatma Gandhi, as you know, walked barefoot most of the time, which produced an impressive set of calluses on his feet. He also ate very little, which made him rather frail and with his odd diet, he suffered from bad breath. This made him .(Oh, man, this is so bad, it's good)..... A super calloused fragile mystic hexed by halitosis.

Oh Cod

(If you thought you were having a bad day up to this point, it's about to get a whole lot worse....)

Far away in the tropical waters of the Caribbean, two prawns were swimming around in the sea - one called Justin and the other called Christian.

The prawns were constantly being harassed and threatened by sharks that patrolled the area. Finally one day Justin said to Christian, "I'm bored and frustrated at being a prawn, I wish I was a shark, then I wouldn't have any worries about being eaten..."

As Justin had his mind firmly on becoming a predator, a mysterious cod appears and says, "Your wish is granted", and lo and behold! Justin turned into a shark. Horrified, Christian immediately swam away, afraid of being eaten by his old mate.

Time went on (as it invariably does...) and Justin found himself becoming bored and lonely as a shark. All his old mates simply swam away whenever he came close to them. Justin didn't realise that his new menacing appearance was the cause of his sad plight.

While out swimming alone one day he sees the mysterious cod again and can't believe his luck. Justin figured that the fish could change him back into a prawn. He begs the cod to change him back so, lo and behold! he is turned back into a prawn.

With tears of joy in his tiny little eyes, Justin swam back to his friends and bought them all a cocktail. (The punch line does not involve a prawn cocktail - it's much worse).

Looking around the gathering at the reef, he searched for his old pal.

"Where's Christian?" he asked.

"He's at home, distraught that his best friend changed sides to the enemy and became a shark", came the reply.

Eager to put things right again and end the mutual pain and torture, he set off to Christian's house. As he opened the coral gate the memories came flooding back. He banged on the door and shouted, "It's me, Justin, your old friend, come out and see me again.

"Christian replied "No way man, you'll eat me. You're a shark, the enemy and I'll not be tricked. "

Justin cried back "No, I'm not. That was the old me. I've changed....."

"I've found Cod. I'm a prawn again Christian"

Nelson

Nelson Mandela is sitting at home watching TV and drinking a beer when he hears a knock at the door.

When he opens it, he is confronted by a little Chinese man, clutching a clipboard and yelling, "You Sign! You sign!"

Behind him is an enormous truck full of car exhausts.

Nelson is standing there in complete amazement, when the Chinese man starts to yell louder. "You Sign! You sign!"

Nelson says to him, "Look, you've obviously got the wrong man", and shuts the door in his face.

The next day he hears a knock at the door again. When he opens it, the little Chinese man is back with a huge truck of brake pads. He thrusts his clipboard under Nelson's nose, yelling, "You sign! You sign!"

Mr Mandela is getting a bit hacked off by now, so he pushes the little Chinese man back, shouting: "Look, go away! You've got the wrong man! I don't want them!"

Then he slams the door in his face again.

The following day, Nelson is resting, and late in the afternoon, he hears a knock on the door again.

On opening the door, there is the same little Chinese man thrusting a clipboard under his nose, shouting,

"You sign! You sign!"

Behind him are TWO very large trucks full of car parts. This time Nelson loses his temper completely, he picks up the little man by his shirt front and yells at him; "Look, I don't want these! Do you understand?"

You must have the wrong name! Who do you want to give these to?"

The little Chinese man looks at him very puzzled, consults his clipboard, and says:

Stars in their eyes

A young man walks onto the stage of Stars in their Eyes, on crutches, with a plaster cast from his feet to his hips.

Matthew Kelly Introduces him as Simon.

'It's very brave of you to come out here,' says Matthew. 'Please tell the audience what happened?' 'Well' replies Simon 'about a year ago, I was driving with my uncle when we had a really bad accident. Unfortunately my uncle was killed outright but I survived. I was trapped in the car for six hours before I was eventually cut free.' 'The doctors had me in surgery for 12 hours but they couldn't save my legs.'

'That's terrible. But I see you have legs now. Are they artificial?' asks Matthew.

'No Matthew. while I was in hospital the doctors informed me that my uncle had in fact died, but that his legs were fine and with all the advances in medical science, they could graft his legs onto my body. The operation was successful. I have been having physiotherapy for six months and hope to be walking fully again by the end of the year.

A huge round of applause erupts from the audience.

'That's an unbelievable story. So, who are you going to be?'

The Vet

A man brought a very limp dog into the veterinary clinic.

As he lay the dog on the table, the Doc pulled out his stethoscope, placing it to the dogs chest. After a moment, the vet shook his head sadly and said "I'm sorry, but your dog has passed away"

"What?" screamed the man. "How can you tell? you haven't done any tests or anything, I want another opinion"

With that the vet turned and left the room.

A few moments later he returned with a Labrador Retriever.

The Labrador went right to work, checking out the poor dog thoroughly.

After a considerable amount of sniffing the Labrador sadly shook his head and barked.

The vet then took the Labrador out and returned with a cat, who also checked out the dog on the table.

The cat sadly shook his head and meowed. It then jumped off the table and ran from the room.

The vet then handed the man a bill for £600. the dog's owner went bonkers.

"£600 to tell me my dog is dead, this is outrageous!"

The vet shook his head and explained "If you had taken my word for it, it would have been £50, but with the Lab report and the Cat scan....."

THE END

Do you receive any good emails?

Why not send them to us and we will use them to build up further volumes of books like these?

We only have two rules:

1. They must not be derogatory towards any individual – including politicians.
2. They must be funny.

We consider the most unacceptable part of the press all over the world is the willingness to make sneering and unpleasant comments about individuals who cannot defend themselves. So we don't do it.

The emails don't need to be like the ones in this book either. We have compilations on a load of subjects, including Women vs Men, Men vs Women, Puns, Business and a special Non-PC.
